

ESF Research Conferences

A Programme of the European Science Foundation

Final
Programme

ESF-LiU Conference

Intersectionality, Identity and Power

Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Intersectionality Studies

Vadstena • Sweden • 11-15 October 2006

Chair: Nina Lykke • Linköping University, Department of Gender Studies, SE

Vice-Chair: Jeff Hearn • Linköping University, Department of Gender Studies, SE

www.esf.org/conferences/sc06216

With support from

The Swedish Research Council

The Riksbankens Jubileumsfond

Wednesday 11 October	16.00 onwards	Registration at ESF-RC desk
	18.00-19.00	Nina Lykke • University of Linköping, SE Jeff Hearn • University of Linköping, SE	Introduction
	19.30	Dinner
	21.00	Welcome Drink
Thursday 12 October	09.00-09.30	Conference Opening
	Session 1 • Transnational perspectives on intersectionalities
	Chair: Jeff Hearn • University of Linköping, SE
	09.30-10.15	Marina Blagojevic • Altera MB, Research Centre on Gender and Ethnicity, HU	Nomadic scientists in a transnational landscape: Personal, social and epistemic consequences of 'practicing' intersectionality
	10.15-10.45	Coffee break
	10.45-11.30	Francien van Driel • Radboud University, NL Tine Davids • Radboud University, NL	The Gender Question in Globalization
	11.30-12.00	General discussion
	12.00	Lunch
	Session 2 • Transnational perspectives on intersectionalities
	Chair: Nina Lykke • University of Linköping, SE
	13.30-14.15	Marianne Liljeström • University of Turku, FI	Geopolitics and Intersectionality: Producing Feminist Knowledge in Russia and Finland
	14.15-14.30	Anna Temkina • European University of St. Petersburg, RU	Response to Lecture by M. Liljeström
	14.30-15.00	General discussion
	15.00-15.30	Coffee break
	Short oral presentations
	15.30-17.30	Anna Adeniji • University of Linköping, SE Setenay Nil Dogan • Sabanci University, TR Malou Juelskjær • Danish University of Education, DK Marjan de Gruijter • Verwey-Jonker Institute, NL Thorgerdur Thorvaldsdottir • University of Linköping, SE	Panel 1: PhD students' perspectives on intersectionalities
	17.30-17.45	Break
17.45-19.00	Open Forum: participants who are not invited speakers or panelists are invited to briefly (5 min.) present their research and perspectives on intersectionalities
19.30	Dinner

Friday
13
October

Session 3 • Theorizing intersectionalities
Chair: Nina Lykke • University of Linköping, SE
09.00-09.45	Dorte Marie Søndergaard • Danish Univ. of Education, DK Lis Højgaard • University of Copenhagen, DK	(Re)negotiating intersectionality and the complexities of subject/matter: Making intersectionality relevant in a co-thinking of STS and poststructuralist analyses
09.45-10.30	Gudrun Axeli Knapp • University of Hannover, DE	Axes of Inequality – Worlds of Difference: Intersectionality in a social theoretical perspective
10.30-11.00	Coffee break
11.00-11.30	Anne-Jorunn Berg • Bodø University College, NO	Response to Lecture by D.M. Søndergaard and L. Højgaard and A. Knapp
11.30-12.00	General Discussion
12.00	Lunch
13.30-15.00	Excursion: Sightseeing in Vadstena
15.00-15.30	Coffee break
Session 4 • Intersections of gender, class and ethnicity
Chair: Jeff Hearn • University of Linköping, SE
15.30-16.15	Joan Acker • University of Oregon, US	Intersecting Class and Gender or Gendered Class Relations
16.15-17.00	Keith Pringle • University of Aalborg, DK	The Uses and Abuses of Intersectionality: Ethnicity and gender
17.00-17.20	Hanne Haavind • University of Oslo, NO	Response to Lecture by J. Acker and K. Pringle
17.20-17.45	General Discussion
17.45-18.00	Break
Short oral presentations
18.00-19.00	Jenny Sundén • Royal Institute of Technology, SE Olena Goroshko • Kharkiv Polytechnic Institute, UA Ulf Mellström • Luleå Technical University, SE	Panel 2: Intersectionalities in Cyberspace
19.30	Get-together & Conference Dinner

Saturday 14 October	Session 5 • Intersections of gender, normativity and sexuality
	Chair: Nina Lykke • University of Linköping, SE
	09.00-09.45	Andrea Peto • Central European University, HU Attractions by Extremes
	09.45-10.30	Tiina Rosenberg • University of Lund, SE Specificity and Intersectionality: Taking the Risk of Getting Superficial Seriously
	10.30-11.00	Coffee break
	11.00-11.30	Helle Rydström • Linköping University, SE Response to lecture by A. Peto and T. Rosenberg
	11.30-12.00	General Discussion
	12.00	Lunch
	13.30-14.15	Lena Martinsson • University of Gothenburg, SE Is class a category among others?
	14.15-15.00	Ulrika Dahl • Södertörn University College, SE The Bad Girls' Genealogy and the Politics of Femme-ininity Oppositional Alliances in the Queer Feminist Margins
	15.00-15.30	Coffee break
	15.30-16.00	Kerstin Sandell • Linköping University, SE Response to lecture by L. Martinsson and U. Dahl
	16.00-16.30	General Discussion
	16.30-16.45	Break
	Short oral presentations
	16.45-19.00	Dorthe Staunæs • Danish University of Education, DK Cathrine Egeland • University of Bergen, NO Randi Gressgaard • University of Bergen, NO Liz Kelly • London Metropolitan University, UK Ann Phoenix • Open University, Milton Keynes, UK Irina Novikova • University of Latvia, LV Panel 3: Theorizing intersectionalities
19.00-19.30	Forward Look Plenary Discussion & Conference Closing Session
19.30	Dinner
Sunday 15 October	9.00	Breakfast & Departure

Note: There will not be a poster session at the conference. Only those abstracts that have been accepted are listed on the programme. No other abstracts have been accepted.