

ESF Science Policy Briefing

Open Access in Biomedical Research

1st Task Force Meeting

Frankfurt, 15th September 2010

Draft Agenda

Participants

Chair	Josef Syka (EMRC and GACR, CZ)
Participants	Isabel Bernal (CSIC, ES) Geraldine Clement-Stoneham (MRC, UK) Nathalie Duchange (Inserm, FR) Lisbeth Soderqvist (SRC, SE)
ESF-EMRC	Stephane Berghmans, Kirsten Steinhausen (ESF), Simon Hadlington (Science Writer)

Location

Sheraton Frankfurt Airport Hotel and Conference Centre, Room 1036

Schedule

- 10.30 Welcome & introduction (Josef Syka)
- 10.40 ESF Science Policy Briefings – scheme & methodology (Stephane Berghmans)
- 10.50 Tour de table
- 11.00 Brainstorming on the SPB content
- Discussions around the following themes:
1. Is there a special case for open access in biomedical research?
 2. What is the biomedical researcher's perspective?
 3. What are the main questions and issues to be addressed?
 4. What is the current landscape (key stakeholders, expertise, etc.)
- 12.30 Lunch
- 13.30 Brainstorming on the SPB content (continued)
5. What are the expected outcomes and what do we want to achieve?
 6. Possible recommendations
- 15.00 Coffee Break
- 16.00 Next steps & Conclusion
1. Expert Group meeting: date, location, participants
 2. Work plan, timeline and responsibilities
- 17.00 Closing

In case of emergency: +33.6.88.06.96.66 (Stephane Berghmans' mobile phone number)

1 quai Lezay-Marnésia • BP 90015
67080 Strasbourg cedex • France
Tel: +33 (0)3 88 76 71 00 • Fax: +33 (0)3 88 37 05 32
www.esf.org